DONE AT HARLEM.

Mud larks had the call on the last day's racing at Harlem for the season of 1901. The steady downpour of rain that started in about 12:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon rendered the track muddy and much scratching was indulged in. The fifth race with four entries scheduled to start was declared off shortening the program to six races. Despite the inclement weather the largest crowd of the last nine day's racing was present and enjoyed an excellent day's sport.

The feature event of the day was The Twentieth Century Stakes, a handicap for three-year-olds and upward at one and three-sixteenths miles, with $5,000 added. The value to the winner was $6,100. Of the twelve named on the card to start just half that number dodged the issue. Sam Hildreth's entry, The Lady and Rolling Boer, was made the favorite, being held at 9 to 5 in the betting, but it cut little figure in the contest, being unable to finish inside of the money. The winner proved to be that consistent big slashing son of Sir Dixon, George Arnold, which simply "rolled" home when called upon in the last quarter. The Lady, closely pursued by George Arnold, showed the way up to the head of the stretch, where she had enough and fell away beaten. George Arnold then came on without any trouble, winning easily by two and a half lengths from Six Shooter, which beat Haviland a length for second place. Six Shooter came with a strong rush at the end next to the inside rail, but had no chance to beat the winner. Haviland appeared to have a good chance when swinging into the stretch, but propped badly when the pinch came. Rolling Boer was never a contender.

St. Marcos failed to respond to the post call in the fifth race, leaving a quartet to battle for the purse. Charley O'Brien, the favorite, proved to be an easy winner, going into the lead without much trouble in the last quarter and remaining there to the end. He won easily by one length from Hi Nocker, which beat Goal Runner five for second place. The boy on the last-named was too light to hold his head up and he simply floundered about in the going.

If You Dare won the day's opener, a dash of five and a half furlongs, with plenty to spare at the end. After a long delay at the post the field was finally despatched with Annu in front followed by If You Dare and Educate. Annu held her advantage up to the turn for home where she fell away beaten and If You Dare assumed command. The latter came on strongly down the last eighth winning easily by two and a half lengths from Educate which beat Harry Herendeen two for second place. The last named ran the best race he has shown here this year and probably runs best in the mud. Bummer ran an indifferent race and was probably not enamored of the going.

Herodiade, which has been nowhere near himself since last spring at Worth, finally ran one of his good races and simply smothered his field with speed in the second race, a dash of five furlongs for two-year-olds. McChesney was supposed to hold the affair in fee simple, but had no chance at any part of it to beat the winner. Herodiade took the lead soon after flag fall and kept gradually increasing it until reaching the last eighth post, where Coburn eased him up. He won by four lengths from McChesney, which beat I. Samelson six for second place. Julia Junkin ran fairly well for a half mile. McChesney appeared to labor in the going and probably does not like a heavy track. The steeplechase had an unsatisfactory ending, simply because the winner was disqualified. Lord Chesterfield led by a fair margin until after passing beyond the eighth jump, where Dick Furber moved up fast and rushed into the van. He held his advantage until just after taking the tenth jump, where Queenship passed him and remained in front to the end thereafter. She won driving by a half length from Dick Furber, but swerved badly across in front of him opposite the last sixteenth post, causing him to be pulled up slightly. She was promptly set back, Dick Furber getting the race with Lord Chesterfield second and Captain Conover third. Lord Chesterfield fell away fast in the latter part of the race, being beaten ten lengths by Dick Furber at the finish. Patroon and Little John fell over the fifth risk and Coley over the eleventh.

The last race of the year at Harlem was won by Canova which remained in the front for the entire journey, a dash of one and one-sixteenth miles, winning in a mild drive by a length from Bonnie Lissak, which beat W. B. Gates five for second place. Bonnie Lissak closed up stoutly in the last sixteenth but tired badly in the last few strides. W. B. Gates was backed heavily but gradually fell away beaten after the first six furlongs had been run. Hermencia ran a dull race. Chorus Boy showed speed but could not carry it for six furlongs.

G. R. Tompkins leaves today for the east with his string of horses.

Educate was claimed out of the first race yesterday by W. E. Cotton for $1,070.

SARATOGA.

Concerning the remarkable scheme of racing announced for the Saratoga of the future, the New York Journal says:

"When William C. Whitney decided to abandon his bid for English turf laurels next year his thoughts naturally turned to racing at home, and he has planned undertakings that exceed anything ever before attempted by the racing powers of this country.

"Summed up, it means that arrangements have been made to make the coming meetings at Saratoga not alone the greatest in the country, but in the entire world.

"Last summer Mr. Whitney and his associates promised extensive improvements in the property that would cost fully $200,000. The success of their meeting in a measure warranted this, and they were anxious, at Mr. Whitney's suggestion, to make their course thoroughly up to date, which in its old form it certainly was not.

"The latest change is not in the way of improving or beautifying the course. That was all provided for weeks ago.

"It has been decided to make their coming program the richest of any meeting in the world. The new events to be provided include a series of fixtures with the following valuations: One of $60,000, one of $50,000, one of $45,000, one of $40,000, one of $35,000, one of $30,000, one of $25,000 and two of $20,000.

"An array of this kind is something unheard of in the annals of racing and the fact that the conditions for the several events are now being framed shows that those in charge have orders to lose no time in providing the attractions.

The last will mean stakes for two-year-olds, three-year-olds and for the older division, with the distances all the way from six furlong to two and a quarter miles.

"Special inducements will be offered in the long races, the idea being to prevail upon owners to devote their time to developing stayers. As it is, this end of the sport has all but developed into a farce. With half a dozen rich events added to the Annual Champion and Municipal Handicap, it will pay an owner to avoid the excessive racing of two-year-olds, with the idea of saving them for engagements as three- and four-year-olds.

"The overnight events are to be made rich in proportion. It is said Mr. Whitney, in arranging for the daily purses, offered to contribute $5,000 a day from his personal account in addition to what may be added by the Saratoga Association. It is hardly possible that this offer will be accepted, still it means that the offerings will exceed all records.

"It now remains with the breeders and horsemen to show their appreciation. When the stakes are announced and entries requested they should respond with a vim that will, as intended, bring into the lists the names of every horse of prominence in the east and west. It would really be a shame to find indifference displayed over an effort of this sort."

SIR DIXON'S SUCCESSOR.

The American Blood Stock Agency, through Manager John Hanning, of New York, has sold to Messrs. Clay & Woodford, of the Runnymede and Raceland Studs, Paris, Ky., for a private consideration, the beautifully bred and excellent racehorse Star Shoot, ch. c. 3, by the great Isinglass, son of Isonomy—Astrology, by Hermit, she out of Stella, by brother to Stafford, and she out of Gilbert's dam, by Toxophilite. In 1900 Star Shoot was considered about the best two-year-old in England, and had he not gone amiss early in his three-year-old form, many students of the turf think he would have won the triple crown. Among his two-year-old victories were the British Dominion Stakes of 1,000 sovs., at Sandown Park, which he won from a field of nine, and the Hurst Park Foal Stakes of 1,500 sovs., at Hurst Park, from a field of nine. He also ran a dead heat, with Ian, for the National Breeders' Produce Stakes of 5,000 sovs., at Sandown Park, conceding Ian nine pounds, with thirteen others behind him. He was only unplaced once in eight starts, and then when he was conceding a world of weight. He met and defeated the best class two-year-olds in England, Messrs. Clay & Woodford and American breeders generally, are to be congratulated on the acquisition of such a representative English race horse, and too much praise can not be bestowed on Mr. Hanning for his efforts in securing such a highly bred race horse for Runnymede and Raceland.—Thoroughbred Record.

WINNERS AT HARLEM.

At the close of the Harlem Jockey Club's Autumn meeting, which ended yesterday, it was figured up that during the nine days of racing $43,000 and over has been distributed among the winning owners, of whom the principal ones were: J. AT WORTH TODAY.

The Worth Jockey Club will today inaugurate its fall meeting of fifteen days with a remarkably good card, following as it does on Harlem's meeting of nine days with six stakes. Under some difficulties an excellent program of six races is offered, with the Worth October Handicap the feature of the day's sport. Weighted as the horses are the race should be productive of a close contest. Argregor will probably be the favorite, with Hildreth's entry a close second choice; Reseda picks up a five-pound penalty for her last win, making the impost 112 pounds; The Conqueror II. on his last race figures to have a good chance and will not be overlooked; Goal Runner, W. J. Deboe, Benckart and Ben Battle are nominees with good outside chances. Worth seems to be fortunate in regard to the weather. Not enough rain had fallen up to last night to make the track heavy, and with no more rain it will possibly be fast today. Presiding Judge M. N. Macfarlan has been in the city for some time and has kept a close watch on the form of the horses and the movements of the jockeys. This was done with the idea of familiarizing himself with the sport as it has been conducted at the other tracks, and it is safe to assume that he will be sufficiently well posted to enable him to keep horses and jockeys in line from the start. One important feature in which there will be a decided improvement over the spring meeting is in the matter of train service. Besides the regular trains the Wabash Railroad will run two special trains which will make no stops between the station and the racetrack. Racing will begin at 2 o'clock sharp.

NEWPORT.

It has been expected that racing would be resumed at Newport Saturday but the matter seems to be unsettled as yet. The Enquirer of yesterday says:

"The expected meeting of the Queen City Jockey Club directors did not take place yesterday. Manager Fowler said that the meeting would not be held until plans under consideration are fully discussed. The track people are anxious to open, but there are several important matters relating to Turf Congress affairs that must be settled before arrangements can be made to throw open the gates at Newport.

"In the meantime the horses and horsemen are swarming to the Licking Valley track and hundreds of the flyers are on edge waiting the bugle call. The track proper is in great shape and promises to be faster this year than ever. It is expected that something definite will be done in reference to the opening before the end of the present week."

LEONORA LORING CASE.

Last week the stewards of the Jockey Club dismissed the appeal of L. W. Myers from the decision of the stewards of the Coney Island Jockey Club disqualifying Leonora Loring after her brilliant success in the Great Filly Stakes, so the case stands as settled and the rich prize goes to Blue Girl. Concerning this case Turf, Field and Farm correctly says:

Every person subscribing to a sweepstake or entering a horse to be run on Jockey Club tracks pledges himself to abide by the Rules of Racing. These rules were drawn up after long deliberation, and their strict enforcement is for the best interests of all concerned. A horse is not qualified to be entered or run which is wholly or partly the property of a disqualified person; and in order that the stewards may not work in the dark, all partnerships and the name and address of any person having any interest in a horse

JOCKEYS HANDICAPPED.

DAILY RACING FORM will from now on publish each week a table of the rating of the jockeys riding at each track based on their performance in the saddle. The best riders at each track will be given the uniform rating of 100, and from that point the others will be graded down according to their estimated relative skill. For a difference of five points between the jockeys a corresponding five points change in the handicap figures assigned the horses in any race must be made. Only riders frequently in the saddle will be given a place in the tables. The following is the rating of the jockeys now riding over the various tracks:

EASTERN TURF TOPICS.

Concerning the Morris Park meeting and some other features of eastern racing, the Sun of Monday says:

"During the remainder of the week the program bristles with sterling attractions. On Wednesday the Autumn Hurdle Handicap and the Hurricane Selling Stakes for two-year-old maidens are the features. Then on Thursday the Belle Meade Stakes for three-year-olds non-winners of $1,500 at time of entry will be run also The Bronx Highweight Handicap, at three-quarters of a mile, for two-year-olds and upward. Friday's special attractions are the Friday Selling Hurdle race, the Nauturium Handicap for two-year-olds, the Fort Schuyler Selling Stakes for three-year-olds and upward and the Grand Stand Handicap for three-year-olds and upward.

"Saturday will be a gala occasion at the Westchester track, the card being rich with plums. Beginning with the Hunter Handicap for three-year-old fillies, the public will be further treated to the Nursery Handicap for two-year-olds, over the Eclipse course. A high class field is promised, including in all probability W. C. Whitney's Goldsmith, King Hanover and Goldseeker, J. W. Schorr's Endurance by Right, J. G. Follansbee's Cameron, August Belmont's Masterman, Perry Belmont's Flywheel, John Daly's Baron, A. Featherstone's Disadvantage, J. R. & F. P. Keene's Port Royal, A. H. & D. H. Morris' Dolce Far Niente, Green B. Morris' Cunard and Sombroero, the Pepper Stable's Whiskey King and Par Excellence, G. E. Smith's Chilton, B. Schreiber's Otis, G. Waulbaum's Smart Set, T. C. McDowell's The Rival and R. T. Wilson Jr.'s Dixieland and Highlander. This race will afford the much desired meeting between Endurance by Right and Mr. Whitney's colts, even though a match appears just now to be out of the question.

"The biggest steeplechase of the year, the Champion Stakes, with $9,000 added, is also to be run on Saturday, the best of the eligibles being Zinziber, Wood Pigeon, Cock Robin, Bachanal, Sacket, Ten Candles, Charagrace, Mystic Shriner, Walter Cleary, Perion, The Bachelor, Bullingdon, Last Cord, Sir Hubert, Charawind, Cheesemite, Matt Simpson, Jessie S. and Fulminate. Altogether a week of racing of unusual interest is in store for the public which has patronized the sport of kings so liberally all the year.

"During the past week the 'no-recall' system of starting received a thorough test at Gravesend and, though at first it met with violent opposition from a majority of turfmen and bettors, it was gradually seen to be a move in the right direction. The starter and the stewards succeeded in impressing upon the jockeys that it was up to them to make the starts good or to take the consequences. The boys at first could not seem to feel the importance of making their horses stand perfectly still before the barrier until the starter gave the word to come on, but when, for instance, Spencer was set down for a week, the jockeys readily saw that business was meant and that if they did not meet the requirements there would be serious trouble in store for all of them. With the jockeys forced to get their mounts away or be punished for being left either by the racing officials or by their employers, yet at the same time compelled to keep from breaking through the barrier in attempts to beat the starter's command, it can readily be appreciated in what a trying position these boys are placed. But even so, they have only to follow out the easiest line by simply obeying the starter's orders to the letter. As the starts improved during the week many owners commended the system, first because of its promptness and second because their horses ran no chances of being fagged out by tedious delays at the post. Then again the bettors began to see that the boys who know how to break the mounts quickly were the ones to be followed, especially O'Connor, Woods, Burns, Wonderly, Martin and Shaw. Speculators also got on to the fact that horses inclined to be nervous or ugly at the post were the ones to be avoided in placing wagers. While there were a few starts that could not be called perfect, there were so many excellent ones that both the stewards and the starters expressed great satisfaction with the working of the new plan. At Morris Park, where Mr. Fitzgerald will have more track room, it is expected that the 'no-recall' system will be used to an even greater advantage.

"The closing days at Gravesend were marked by various instances of 'in-and-out' running and queer riding that excited no end of comment among horsemen. On Saturday when Stuart and Pentecost rushed home victorious, many an old turfman threw up his hands in surprise. The story in regard to Pentecost is that his previous poor performances were due to the heavy plates he wore which made him 'leg weary.' On Saturday he was fitted with new and lighter plates of aluminum, hence his great speed. Whatever was done to the colt, the fact remains that his reversal of form was so marked that many racegoers went away in a quandary. When William C. Whitney not long ago engaged Cochran to ride for him next year, the boy was regarded as a high-class jockey with a brilliant future. Lately his work has been so poor that the betting public has learned to avoid his mounts. His regular employer, J. J. McCafferty, even scoured on him, it is said, and so did other owners. Whether Cochran has fallen into a run of hard luck or is riding poorly for some other reason, nobody can undertake to say, but it is a fact that he is putting up performances every day that would make the average stable boy blush.

"Following so closely the withdrawal of W. C. Whitney from the English turf, the recent ruling off of Lester Reiff, Mr. Whitney's jockey, has been regarded as significant by turfmen here, most of whom cannot be made to believe that Reiff is not the victim of persecution. Still, with the ruling of the English stewards as final, Reiff, the same as Tod Sloan, cannot be expected to ride again in America unless the Jockey Club concludes that these boys have been punished enough. Sloan confidently expects a license to ride here next year and says so. It is believed that most of the American boys riding abroad will return here for another season's campaign.

"The Brighton Beach Racing Association announces that entries for six of its leading stake events, which will be run off in 1902 and 1903, will close on October 15. The three events on for next year are all for two-year-olds, and are the Brighton Junior Stakes of $10,000 at six furlongs, the Neptune Stakes of $5,000 at six furlongs and the Venus Stakes of $3,000 for fillies at five furlongs. The three stakes for 1903 are for three-year-olds and are the Brighton Derby of $10,000 at one mile and a quarter, the Iroquois Stakes at $5,000 at one mile and a furlong and the Brighton Oaks of $3,500 for fillies at one mile and seventy yards.

Outside of the stable of W. C. Whitney, who heads the list of winning owners, no very big amounts were won by those who raced horses at the meeting of the Brooklyn Jockey Club, which ended at the Gravesend track on Saturday. Mr. Whitney won the Junior Champion Stakes with Goldsmith and also many overnight events with Morningside, Gold Seeker, Lady Godiva and Rowdy, yet his winnings amount to only $18,870. The nearest man to him is John J. McCafferty with $7,695, and then comes the stable of J. W. Schorr with Endurance by Right as the leading breadwinner. Those who won $200 and over follow:

Educate ran a good race considering the fact that she was much used while at the post. Harry Herendren revealed in the going and showed the best race he has run this year. He probably runs best in the mud. Bummer could not negotiate the going. Annu ran a surprisingly good race and was right there for four and a half furlongs. Seguranca ran far below expectation.

Went to post at 2:45. At post 8 minutes. Start good. Won in a canter; second easily. Herodiade liked the mud and simply played with his field and won as his rider pleased. McChesney appeared to labor in the going and evidently does not like the mud. I. Samelson could not extend himself in the going and the same may be said of Landseer. Julia Junkin showed well for a half mile.

Winner—Br. c. by Fordham—Duchess Caroline.
Went to post at 3:10. At post 6 minutes. Start fair. Won driving; second easily. Queenship, always well up, assumed the lead after the tenth jump had been taken, closely pushed by Dick Furber, but just about the last sixteenth post swerved badly in front of Furber, causing him to pull up slightly. She was promptly disqualified, Dick Furber being placed first, Lord Chesterfield second and Captain Conover third. Lord Chesterfield ran well up to the tenth jump, where he gradually fell away beaten. Coley fell over the ninth jump, but his jockey caught him, remounted and rode the race out. Patroon and Little John went down over the fifth jump.

Six Shooter finished with a rush next to the inside rail but had no chance to beat the winner. Winner—B. f. by Sir Dixon—Cherry Blossom.
Went to post at 3:00. At post 5 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Feme Sole was best, liked the incline and appeared a certain winner throughout. Lieschen ran in greatly improved form. Presumption was pinned on the rail at the end, but finished fast. Anak showed much speed and was pocketed right at the end or he would have been placed. He favors soft or muddy going. Lady Godiva is a slow beginner and wants a route. She closed a big gap and was going strongly at the finish. Joy Maker ran prominently. Trump must have mud to show good form.
Scratched—28099 Andalusian, 102; 28651 Setanket, 106; 28294 Bon Mot, 100; 28578 Nissequogue, 92; 27197 Lemoyne, 92; 28673 Bijou, 92.
Overweights—Presumption, 2 pounds; Tact, 2; Musidora, 1; Destitute, 5; Missile, 1.
Feme Sole, show, 3 to 5. Lieschen, show, 6 to 1. Presumption, show, 2 to 1.

Winner—B. c. by Meddler—Castalia.
Went to post at 3:30. At post 2 minutes. Start straggling. Won in a canter; second easily. Chilton beat the gate, but ran in remarkably improved form and pulled away hard held in the last furlong. De Reszke broke flat-footed, was unable to overcome the ground lost and was eased up second. Brunswick ran a fine race on his own courage. Andy Williams and Ben Howard were improving their positions after they passed the half mile post. Bessie McCarthy quit unaccountably. She was probably very short. Belle's Commoner ran poorly.
Scratched—(28425) Cameron, 115; 28673 Gibson Light, 110; 28651 Setanket, 110.
Chilton, show, out. Brunswick, show, 3 to 1.

Winner—B. c. by Kantaka—Queenie.
Went to post at 3:55. At post 3 minutes. Start fair. Won easily; second the same. Lord Pepper was cleverly handled, finished well and was benefited by Elegy and Lamp o'Lee wearing themselves out in front. Elegy ran gamely, but her jockey was unprepared for the winner's rush at the end. Lamp o'Lee showed early speed in abundance today, but failed to stick at the end. He ran as if short and will improve on this showing, especially in mud. The others were outclassed, although Garter Ban had worked well. He got away very badly and may do better.
Scratched—28720 The Driver, 109.
Overweights—Lamp o'Lee, 2 pounds; Mark Lane, 1; Garter Ban, 4.
Lord Pepper, show, evens. Elegy, show, 1 to 2. Lamp o'Lee, show, 4 to 5. Garter Ban, show, 3 to 5.

Winner—B. c. by Inspector B.—Fronie Louise.
Went to post at 4:20. At post 5 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Alfred Vargrave trailed the field to the stretch where he finished strongly and caught Rowdy, which seemed to be a sure winner almost throughout, both were all out at the end. Wild Pirate propped when coming down the hill in the last quarter and refused to extend himself. He was going extra well to the top of the hill. Eloim ran up to his best form. Satire succumbed from following the fast pace. Lone Fisherman made up ground from a bad start.
Scratched—28404 Speedmast, 104; 28404 Hammock, 101; 28384 Oread, 98.
Overweights—Alfred Vargrave, 2 pounds; Lady Chorister, 1.

LEONORA LORING CASE.

must be registered with the Secretary of the Stewards of the Jockey Club. If this reasonable rule is not enforced, what is to prevent a disqualified interest from frequently appearing in the nomination list? In the Great Fly Stakes, for foals of 1899, run at Sheephead Bay on Saturday, September 7, Leonora Loring, by Dr. MacBride—Hoyden, finished first; Blue Girl, by Sir Dixon—Bonnie Blue II., second, and Sun Shower, by Applegate—Sunny Slope, third. The latter is owned by Jere Dunn and he protested the payment of first money to Leonora Loring on the ground that the rules governing entry had not been complied with by her owners. B. G. Thomas had named the Hoyden filly Nov. 15, 1899, without having been deputed to do so by her owner or owners, and the obligation that the nomination imposed was never formally assumed by them. If the filly had not come to the post no one could legally have been held for her forfeit. The important fact that Leonora Loring was owned in partnership by L. W. Myers and John Daly was not registered with the stewards, as the rules of racing require, and when a formal protest was made, escape from barring her from competition was impossible. The stewards of the Coney Island Jockey Club handed down their decision on Wednesday, September 18, disqualifying Leonora Loring, which makes the official placing in the Great Fly Stakes, Blue Girl first, Sun Shower second, and Par Excellence third. Some regard it as a hardship for an owner to be deprived of a valuable stake on a technicality, but the racing code is one long string of technicalities, and we must adhere closely to it or see racing pass into eclipse.
